Your role in our MINT family:

- As a Business Analyst, you work in one of our multinational Scrum Development teams
- You work closely together with our Product Owner, Product Management and Customer Service Excellence Team
- You are responsible for analyzing and documenting business requirements and break them down into User Stories to be implemented with your team
- Together with the Scrum team, you refine the User Stories to get them ready for implementation
- As the first point of contact for the Scrum team, you support the team by clarifying requirements with the customer and Product Owner
- You assist the Product Owner with work prioritization and providing reports for capacity planning

This is how you can impress us:

- You have an academic degree in the field of (business) information technology or a comparable degree relevant to the position or profound work experience in a related field
- You bring knowledge and previous experiences in Requirements Engineering and Software Development Lifecycle as well as Enterprise Solutions Development, ideally in Training/Learning contexts
- You have a pro-active and solution-oriented hands-on working style and technical experience solving security challenges
- You enjoy working in a team, have excellent people skills, and can communicate at all hierarchical levels in a manner appropriate to the target group
- You are willing to occasionally travel to MINTs international locations
- Your English language skills are great, both written and oral
- You are passionate about technology and security – you love keeping pace with the latest thinking and development, and you thrive on change

What we have in store for you:

- Our people & culture: at MINT you will be part of a global family that thrives on our cultural diversity. We love spending time together on social events and pride ourselves on the fun, productive environment in our modern MINT offices.
- Flexibility & mobile working: We respect every person's individual routines. Therefore, we support flexible schedules and mobile working so you can find your perfect work-life-balance
- Profit sharing: We believe that people make the company, and this is why we love to share our profits with our people
- Retirement plans: To help prepare our people for an enriching retirement, we contribute to our employees' direct insurance scheme
- Travel opportunities: As a global company with customers and MINT family members in offices all around the world such as Germany, USA, United Arabic Emirates and partners in Colombia and Ukraine, you have great opportunities to travel to exciting locations
- Drinks & snacks: we believe the way to a human's heart is through their stomach and this is why we provide beverages, snacks and the occasional catered lunch
- Pet-friendly offices: If you choose to work from one of our offices, feel free to bring your four-legged friend with you. We'd love to meet them!
